

Vocabulary

Diwali	Melody	Nocturnal	Evening	Celebrate	Rejoice	Jolly
---------------	---------------	------------------	----------------	------------------	----------------	--------------

In PSED we will be,                  Talking about what makes us special?                  Looking at are we the same or different?                  What is my room and house like?                  Looking at friendship and kindness.                  Standing up for yourself.	In Communication and language we will,                  Character freeze frames.                  Birthdays- learning about how our own celebrations differ from others.                  Nocturnal animals fact files.                  Celebrating Christmas and discussing why it is so special.                  Learning our Nativity lines.	In Physical Development we will be,                  Learning about healthy eating and exercise.                  Exploring different fine motor skills activities, such as threading, hammering, rolling, scrunching and tearing.                  Exploring spatial awareness and body movements.                  Practice our movements such as rolling, crawling, walking, jumping, running, hopping, skipping, climbing.
--	---	--

In literacy we will be,                  Creating and labelling fireworks.                  Writing character captions.                  Writing a party list.                  Character speech bubbles.                  Making our own story map and retelling a story.                  Sharing our story and word of the week.                  Drawing club 3x weekly.	In Maths we will be,                  Finding 1 more and 1 less.                  Ordering time events by looking at night and day.                  Weighing presents.                  Finding shapes within shapes.                  Using positional language to describe the postman's journey.                  Subitising Christmas lights then counting to check.	In Expressive art and Design we will be;                  Creating Diwali lanterns and Diya lamps.                  Using materials to create a class worry tree.                  Making remembrance poppies.                  Colour mixing firework paintings.                  Making bonfires by tearing and scrunching paper.	In Understanding the World we will be;                  Draw information from a simple map.                  Understand special places and supporting our local community.                  Discovering nocturnal animals and their habitats.                  Recognising that people have different beliefs and celebrate special times in different ways.
--	---	---	--